

UC San Diego

PSYCHOLOGY

MINOR REQUIREMENTS

- At least 4 of the Upper Division courses must be taken for Letter Grade at UCSD
- If you take PSYC 60, it must be taken for a Letter Grade
- A Maximum of one (4-Unit) PSYC 199 may count as one of the UD courses
- A Minor GPA of at least 2.0 is required for graduation
- Apply on TritonLink no later than one quarter before graduation

UC San Diego

PSYCHOLOGY

MINOR REQUIREMENTS

The minor in psychology consists of seven four-unit courses from the Department of Psychology (PSYC 1 - PSYC 193), of which at least twenty units (five four-unit courses) must be upper division. At least four upper division courses must be taken at UCSD for a letter grade. Psychology 199 (Independent Study) may count for one upper division course towards the minor.

If Psychology 60 (Statistics) is chosen as one of the lower division courses, it must be taken for a letter grade.

A grade point average (GPA) of at least 2.0 is required for graduation.

GUIDELINES FOR MINOR REQUIREMENTS:

- To declare or change your minor, use the online minor tool on TritonLink.
- Select a course distribution from the three options below:
 - 2 Lower Division, 5 Upper Division Psychology courses
 - 1 Lower Division, 6 Upper Division Psychology courses
 - 7 Upper Division Psychology courses
- When listing courses on your application, only list course numbers and titles for courses you have completed or are currently enrolled in.
 - For Lower Division courses not yet completed, list as follows:
Subject Code: PSYC Course No: LD or 999 Title: Psychology Elective Institution: UCSD Units: 4.0
 - For Upper Division courses not yet completed, list as follows:
Subject Code: PSYC Course No: UD or 999 Title: Psychology Elective Institution: UCSD Units: 4.0
 - Any course that needs to be petitioned should also be listed as PSYC 999 (EAP course, transfer course, etc.). Submit course petition to the Psychology Student Affairs Office as soon as possible for review.

Processing time for minor applications is 7-10 business days from when you submit.
Check your status on TritonLink under Major and Minor tool.