This class will count as a Psychology Elective or may be petitioned to count toward Psychology programming requirements. Open to Juniors and Seniors of all majors. Students must have access to a laptop in class. All PSYC 193 classes require department authorization through the EASY System.